- For overnight camps – 3:00pm the last day of camp

WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN YOU BRING YOUR CHILD

FRONT GATE

- Sign a register and indicate who is bringing in which children.
- Go straight down the main road to the Assembly Building.

ASSEMBLY BUILDING

- Meet the dean and the camp staff.
- Receive an index card.
 - ♦ On it will be the cabin/hogan assignment and any balance due.
 - ♦ There is a line for the camper's signature.
 - ♦ The second line is for any non-parent or guardian who will pick up your child when camp is over. Note: If the pick-up person changes during the camper's stay, LRCA must be notified or we will not release your child!
- A wristband ID will be given to each camper. It must be worn during the camper's entire stay at LRCA.
- Camp T-shirts can be picked up by campers who pre-ordered them or who purchase them on the spot.
- Camp pictures may be ordered ($10). They will be handed out on the last day of camp.

SPENDING MONEY?

- Canteen cards can be purchased for kids ($10 each). These punch cards take the place of cash and we suggest the kids have no cash at camp. (Canteen items include pop, water, slushies, candy, nachos, etc.)
- Missions money can be designated for your child to give to the week's mission. We suggest an equal amount for Canteen and Missions. Unused Canteen cards will be donated to the mission.

MEDICAL STUFF

- The Medical Form is part of the Registration Form. The Dean and Nurse share these files.
- Medications must be given to the camp nurse. Please have written instructions about all the child's meds. Note: All medicine is to be in its original container.

After all this, you can settle your kids into their cabins/hogans.

WHAT TO EXPECT WHEN YOU RETRIEVE YOUR CHILD

- State your name at the front gate. You will be directed to the campers.
- Camper's luggage, bedding, etc. will be by the shelter by the parking lot.
- You need to pick up meds from the camp Nurse.
- Sign out at the front gate: Sign next to all campers in your vehicle.

SIGN OUT

CAMPER MAIL

- To send your child mail at camp, use the camp address. Make sure the camper's name and camp week are plainly written on the outside of the letter or package.
- You can also e-mail your camper at the camp address.

Camp LRCA Guidelines

- Faculty members and campers are to abide by the schedule unless excused by the program director.
- No one is permitted to leave the camp without the permission of the program director or manager. With permission, you must sign out at the camp office.
- All visitors must check in at the camp office upon arrival to the camp.
- Any sickness or injury must be reported to the camp nurse.
- In matters of dress, Christian modesty must prevail at all times. No halter tops, tube tops, bare midriff, strapless attire, flip flops, exposed underwear, short shorts, or shirts with inappropriate graphics or words. No bared cleavage or buttocks.
- No one is to go barefoot on the camp grounds at any time!
- Any camper causing property damage will be held accountable for the cost.
- No food or drinks are allowed in the cabins or chapel.
- Cursing and the use of tobacco, drugs, and intoxicants are prohibited on the camp.
- The program director or camp manager reserves the right to reprimand or dismiss any camper or faculty member who does not conform to these guidelines.

What Not to Bring

- No weapons, guns, knives, fireworks.
- Leave all electronics at home: CD player, iPod, MP3 player, video game, CELL PHONE.
